

Shock absorbers are a relevant part of the safety of automobiles. They absorb and dampen vibrations of vehicle, caused by driving movements and rough roads. Their poor condition will cause the vehicle to become little controllable braking, especially on curves. It also decreases the comfort and the lifespan of the tires since it causes premature wear of these.

We have the necessary equipment to review and change the shock absorbers of all types of vehicle.

{yoogallery src=[/images/stories/afinamiento/] width=[186]}